DEAR FRIENDS,

We cannot wait to welcome and host you for the European Championships Munich 2022.

The European Championships will be the biggest multi-sport event in Germany since the 1972 Summer Olympics. From 11-21 August 2022, European sport will be united as its best athletes compete for the highest accolade of their sport on the continent – the title of 'European Champion'. Along with Olympiapark at the heart of the event, the entire city will dress up for a glorious and unforgettable spectacle of sport and culture – a fitting way to celebrate a golden jubilee.

Following a successful premiere in Berlin and Glasgow in 2018, the sports programme has been revamped for the second edition of the European Championships, upping the number of medal decisions to 177 and adding to the diversity of the event. Munich 2022 combines nine Olympic sports 'under one roof' and appeals to a wide audience, with individual, ball and team sports all represented and gender equity across almost all disciplines.

Cycling will return as one of the biggest crowd-pleasers, with a programme that takes in everything

Munich and its surrounds have to offer. The time trial will take place in nearby Fürstfeldbruck while cyclists in the road events will be treated to an extra dose of Bavarian charm, with the lakes and mountains of the south of the state offering a scenic backdrop on the race to Munich. Competitors in MTB cross-country, and BMX freestyle park will be at the heart of the action in Munich 2022's central hub: Olympiapark, while a purpose-built velodrome awaits competitors at Messe München.

With this cycling bulletin, we present you a glimpse of what is to come in less than seven months. In the meantime, our team will be working relentlessly in the wings to set the perfect stage for all participants and make the European Championships 2022 an overall experience to be remembered.

See you in August!

MUNICH – A MODERN CITY WITH TRADITION

The history of Munich is documented all the way back to 1158 when it was first mentioned as “forum apud Munichen”. The Old German name means “by the monks” and derives from the monks who ran a monastery at the place that was to become the Old Town of Munich. A monk is still depicted on the city’s coat of arms.

Today, the Bavarian state capital is the third-largest city in Germany – behind Berlin and Hamburg – and one of the most prosperous and fastest-growing cities in the country. It is consistently voted as one of Germany’s most liveable cities, with various career opportunities, a low crime rate, a broad selection of leisure and recreational activities plus an efficient infrastructure ensuring a high quality of life.

A METROPOLIS WITH SMALL-TOWN CHARM

Munich has become a household name around the globe in various sectors, be it art, science, technology, education, or sports. The city houses many world-known brands, such as BMW, Siemens, Allianz, and Bayern Munich FC. There is a broad range of culture to be experienced in the 47 theatres and 46 museums, including the renowned Pinakotheken and the world’s largest technology museum, Deutsches Museum.

Till this day no building is allowed to be taller than the spires of the Frauenkirche (Cathedral Church of Our Lady), which unknowingly ensures that Munich does not feel as overwhelming as other cities of its scale. Various other factors add to the cosy vibe, from the city’s parks to Bavaria’s southern charm and famed beer culture. While the Oktoberfest nowadays often pictures a cliché, it is deeply rooted in tradition. When Crown Prince Ludwig married Princess Therese of Saxony-Hildburghausen in 1810, the citizens of Munich were invited to attend the festivities held in front of the city’s gates, with horse races marking the close of the royal event. To honour their marriage the first Oktoberfest was held the following year and it has grown to what we see now over the centuries.

GATEWAY TO THE ALPS

Besides its touristic attractions, Munich boasts numerous green spots, with the English Garden alone covering 375 hectares! The Eisbach wave at its southern edge is probably the most famous river surfing spot and used by surfers throughout the year. With a length of 13.7 kilometres, the Isar winds its way through the city and offers additional recreational activities on its banks.

With its central European location and proximity to the Alps, Munich is the perfect destination for both city and nature lovers. The picturesque lakes and mountains are just a short drive away and provide the perfect setting for a weekend getaway.

BACK TO THE ROOFS

Olympiapark München is an event location and meeting point with a glorious past, a vibrant present and a bright future. In August 2022, the park will once again be in the spotlight: By hosting the European Championships Munich 2022, Munich will welcome the largest sporting event since the 1972 Summer Olympics. High-profile sports 'under one roof', right in the heart of the city, in a carefree atmosphere – such is the winning formula for a unique and memorable experience. Back then, just as it is today.

Munich 2022 is an innovative return to the roots of the 1972 Olympic Games. A reminiscence of hospitality, happiness, and community, but also of the victims of the terrorist attack on the Israeli Olympic team. At the same time, the event is a return to a unique and historic place. It is a return to the legendary architecture of Olympiapark with its world-famous tent roof construction, which once turned Munich, seen as a village housing a million people, into an international sports metropolis overnight.

Munich 2022 pays homage to this heritage, celebrates the uniqueness of Munich as a venue, sets an example in terms of sustainability and leaves its own legacy. This is another, but certainly not the last chapter in the success story of Olympiapark.

EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

Munich 2022 is more than just facts, figures, and sporting results. It is a holistic event experience, creating lasting memories in a light-hearted atmosphere. "The Roofs – Festival of Munich 2022" will significantly contribute to the eleven-day extravaganza. The festival of diversity and surprises will be accompanying the European Championships with a mix of music, culture, art, food and much more. It will turn Munich into the summer's place to be, with plenty to offer for young and old alike.

"The Roofs" is a festival for everyone. A place of encounter, participation, wonder and experience. Surrounded by the frenzy of the sporting competitions and accompanied by the charm and diversity of the regional culture.

The concept of pop-up experiences is creating a novelty setup and setting the stage – literally and figuratively – for the unexpected. The traditional event setup with the bundling of theme-specific contents in the same area is rearranged for "The Roofs". Individually themed worlds – "Roofs" – will be created, each with their own character in terms of content and design. They will be spread across Olympiapark, Königsplatz and the Olympic Regatta Centre, allowing visitors and participants to revel in a total of nine individual "Roofs" and delve into extraordinary experiences.

The programme is a tribute to 50 years of Olympiapark and symbolises the variety of this unique location, its history, present, and future. "The Roofs" conveys a small-town charm rather than giantism and focuses on uniqueness rather than uniformity. More to come. More to experience.

MUNICH 2022 EMS

With the Event Management System (EMS) Munich 2022 offers its users a platform to manage the various services around the event in one place, in an easy and efficient way. The system includes different modules. The available service modules will be as follows: accommodation, and arrivals and departures. The EMS will open in February 2022.

The registration for teams will occur through the UEC system as usual. Nevertheless, there must only be one single point of contact (SPOC) for each national federation, who will be provided with a link to login to the EMS platform. The SPOC will be able to manage accommodation bookings and arrivals and departures data for the entire team. Please be cautious as there are different deadlines for different processes. Please find the deadline overview on page 19.

Please also note that the LOC will provide user guides with a step-by-step outline of the registration and booking processes before the system opens.

RADIO EQUIPMENT

All users, who are planning to use wireless devices (such as walkie talkies, wireless cameras, microphones, PMR446, DECT systems and WIFI routers) during the European Championships Munich 2022, must submit their requirements to Munich 2022 prior to the deadline of 1 May 2022 via the Spectrum Order Portal. The Spectrum Order Portal is currently under construction by the Federal Network Agency. We will notify once you are able to forward your detailed device information.

Once the portal is ready for the submission of your information, all users are strongly encouraged to apply as soon as possible, due to a limited availability of radio resources within the venues. Once the request has been reviewed and approved, a radio licence will be issued outlining the specification of the assigned radio frequencies.

Upon arrival in Munich users are required to have their wireless equipment validated at a Spectrum Desk. The location of the Spectrum Desk will be announced at later date. The Spectrum Desk team will examine the wireless equipment to ensure that it matches the specifications outlined in the radio licence. All wireless equipment must be programmed to the frequency assigned ahead of time. Once the validation is completed, the wireless equipment will have a label affixed to it which indicates that it has the required permit to operate in a particular venue. Failure to apply for radio frequency coordination and/ or the absence of a label will result in the denial of entry to the venue for that wireless equipment.

Individuals who wish to use mobile phones, laptops, PDAs or smart phones do not need to register their equipment via this process.

For more information and support please contact the Munich 2022 Spectrum Management team via email at ec22\_spectrum@riedel.net.

A MUST-WATCH EXPERIENCE

European Championships Munich 2022 will mark an absolute highlight for sports fans across Europe.

Broadcast coverage of Munich 2022 will deliver over 400 hours of live sport produced to the highest standards with 20 production galleries and more than 300 cameras. Together with experienced creative crews, our ambition is to create a must-watch experience across all platforms following one uniting principle: RESPECT THE SPORT – INSPIRE THE VIEWER.

The European Broadcasting Union, as the main rights holder, has already stated that the European Championships Munich 2022 will enjoy a “Major Event” status, like the Olympics or the FIFA World Cup – which elevates our event to another level.

After the success of the inaugural European Championships in 2018, with in excess of 1.4 billion TV Viewers worldwide, we expect more than 40 public broadcasters to cover the event (such as BBC, ARD/ZDF, RAI, France TV, and many more.). We aim to further increase the on-air audience by using a coordinated timetable.

ROAD CYCLING VENUES

MURNAU A. STAFFELSEE

Located 70 kilometres south of Munich, Murnau a. Staffelsee will serve as the start for the Men's Elite Road Race. The market town originated in the 12th century around Murnau Castle and is situated on the edge of the Alps. With lake Staffelsee to its west and the striking mountain range to its south, Murnau a. Staffelsee could be considered a Bavarian cliché in the most positive sense. The cyclists will pass the stunning alpine landscape before tackling the final metres in the city centre of Munich.

LANDSBERG AM LECH

The Bavarian lakes and mountains offer a scenic backdrop and the perfect challenges to test Europe's leading road cyclists. The Women's Elite Road Race will start in Landsberg am Lech, a picturesque town located 65 kilometres west of Munich and 35 kilometres south of Augsburg. It is situated on the Romantic Road and noted for its historic centre. Landsberg used to be an important point on the Via Claudia Augusta, a Roman trade route which came up from Italy and headed towards Augsburg.

COMPETITION INFORMATION

The track cycling competitions will take place from 11-16 August.

All competing athletes will have the opportunity to familiarise themselves with the temporary 200 metre track with a seven-metre width built by Velotrack. The three training sessions will be held on three consecutive days starting Tuesday 9 until Thursday 11 August. The first two training days consist of a 90-minute session per group and the third training day consist of a 60-minute session per group being followed by the first qualifying rounds in the afternoon.

Sessions will be allocated per nation by the commissaire's panel. A full training schedule will be available at the beginning of August 2022.

The confirmation of starters and the team managers' meeting will be held at the venue on Wednesday 10 August and is obligatory for all team managers.

Team storage containers will be available directly next to the exhibition hall starting 8 August. Due to a lack of parking spaces at the team hotels an extra team parking lot will be offered at the venue between 8-22 August. The amount of parking spaces needed per nation will be inquired via email with a separate booking form. This parking lot will be fenced, guarded with security, and supplied with water and electricity. Access will only be granted for accredited persons.
