NATIONAL FEDERATIONS' UPDATE

April 2023

Greetings from Glasgow HQ, Scotland!

We're bringing you a roundup of useful information about the 2023 UCI Cycling World Championships taking place in Glasgow and across Scotland (3 - 13 August, 2023) - with some of the world's greatest riders competing at the highest level.

This innovative mega-event will feature more than 8,000 elite and amateur cyclists competing across 13 UCI World Championships for over 200 rainbow jerseys! It is truly set to be an adrenaline-fuelled, action-packed, 11 days of action from start to finish!

VISA INVITATION LETTER ONLINE SYSTEM LAUNCH

The Visa Invitation Letter online system is live!

The system has been created to support National Federations delegates with an invitation letter to assist those who need to obtain a visa to enter the United Kingdom.

The system was created to allow the Chef de Mission to provide information about their participating delegates and allow them to obtain a Visa Invitation Letter, which will be a downloadable PDF.

Contact us on federations@cyclingworldchamps.com for any queries you might have on the system.

NATIONAL FEDERATIONS SURVEY DEADLINE

All nominated Chefs de Mission have received a link to the National Federations Survey.

The survey will allow us to best plan and prepare for your teams involvement at the 2023 UCI Cycling World Championships in Glasgow and across Scotland.

The survey will take less than 10 minutes to complete. We understand you may not have all the relevant information required for each Championships, so please send this survey to your individual Championships Team Manager who can provide more details on the championship team sizes and logistics, indicating any other needs you might have.

The deadline for completion: 23:59 (UTC+1) 30 May 2023

FLAGS AND ANTHEMS

With over 200 Medal Ceremonies due to take place during the 2023 UCI Cycling World Championships, it is of the utmost importance to ensure that all competing nations flags and anthems are correct. Earlier this month we emailed all nominated Chefs de Mission their unique link to confirm your national flag & national anthems via our approval system.

To review and approve your flag & anthem, click the how to guide button below.

If you have lost or not received your personalised approval link please email federations@cyclingworldchamps.com who will assist.

The deadline for completion: 23:59(UTC+1) 28 May 2023

HOW TO GUIDE

HOW TO GUIDE

ACCOMMODATION

Our official athlete travel provider, CSE, will provide a wide range of accommodation and local travel solutions across Scotland for all competing disciplines.

The National Federations accommodation programme will encompass larger hotels, self-catering and student accommodation. It will be centred around four clusters in Stirling, Glasgow, Fort William and Peebles.

Each of the race locations are popular with summer tourists, so we advise you to visit the accommodation portal as soon as possible for competitive options, terms and conditions.

National Federations will be provided with one-to-one support from the experienced CSE accommodation team who will assist in your preparations to attend the Championships.

Many teams have already booked their accommodation, so book fast to secure your preferences by using the button below!

RADIO EQUIPMENT

Any teams, broadcasters, press and any other individuals planning to use radio equipment in the United Kingdom must apply for a radio license which will be issued by Ofcom (the regulator of communication services in the United Kingdom).

The application form can be requested from Radio.Spectrum@cyclingworldchamps.com

Processing time for applications can be long, so please ensure you submit your application with enough time!

For more information on the PMSE application process, including applicable fees, please use the button below.

ROAD RACE VEHICLES

Due to space limitations at both the remote start areas in Edinburgh and Loch Lomond, and at the start/finish area in Glasgow, a maximum of three vehicle passes will be provided to each National Federation to access these team parking areas. Any National Federations utilising a 'Team Bus' as one of those three vehicles will not be allocated a Team Box in any team parking area.

Please confirm if you will, or will not, be utilising a Team Bus for the Road Races by completing the short form below.
