Their name should appear in this overview: <https://www.uci.org/riders/road-riders-teams/4uEfOErsVL4hkRJriqkdiw> - please check the speciality under which your team is registered (road, MTB, cyclocross etc.).

Elite riders who are not part of a UCI registered team but have an elite license have the choice of starting in the elite category or in their respective age category, but they must make that choice.

Any riders who are under the age of 35 as of December 31 of the current year must compete in the Elite category.

For the 19–34 age group, Gravel European Champion titles will not be awarded (no medal, no jersey). However, results will still be considered for qualification to the UCI Gravel World Championships, and athletes in this category will compete for the title alongside the Elite category.

➤ Masters categories

The UEC Gravel European championships are organised in the age group 35-39 and further 5-year age groups: 40-44, 45-49, 50-54, 55-59, 60-64, 65-69; 70-74, 75-79, etc.

Age groups are defined by the rider's age on 31 December of the year of the European Championship.

All age groups will have their own title regardless of the number of riders who have taken part in the race in the relevant age groups.

3.5 MATERIAL AND EQUIPMENT

➤ Bikes

UCI article 15.6.005: Any style of bike shall be permitted as long as this bike has dropped handlebars but e-bikes, tandem, recumbent bikes and time trial road bikes are forbidden.

Handlebars can be of any shape but must be of a one-piece construction with no bar ends or clip-on extensions allowed (triathlon handlebars and any other handlebars extension system are forbidden).

The bike should be minimum 6.8kg (without bottles, GPS device) as per UCI regulations.

There is no minimum or maximum tyre width.

➤ Mandatory helmet

The UEC takes a very hard stance on the use of helmets in competition. Wearing a helmet is mandatory for all competitions, throughout the whole race. Participants are informed in advance by the organization that they will be barred from the start or that their race number will immediately be withdrawn if they are caught by a member of the organization without their helmet.

➤ Jersey

All riders are free to ride in their national, team or club jersey.

Reigning World Champions should wear their rainbow jersey.

3.6 UNFORESEEN

In those events in which the regulations do not specify, the commissaires panel, in conjunction with the UEC Technical Delegate and the organization (where applicable), will decide.

ARTICLE 4. EVENTS REGULATIONS

4.1 COURSES

Gravel discipline is a form of cycling that combines elements of both road and mountain-bike disciplines and consisting mostly of distance riding over unpaved roads.

Gravel events shall have the following course characteristics:

- Gravel races shall take place on any type of unsurfaced roads and can include gravel, forest fire-roads, farm roads and tracks and cobbles.
- Tarmac surfaced roads should not total more than 40% (forty percent) of the race distance.
- The course should avoid grass and meadows.
- Singletrack sections should be kept to a minimum and only be included in the course where required to link other sections and only where an alternative route for essential event vehicles (for example medical services) is available.

- Course distances should be a minimum of 50 km and a maximum of 200 km, considering course difficulty and elevation gain. Race organisers can propose a shorter distance for older age categories. There shall only be one official distance per age category per event.

4.2 SIGNPOSTING

Signposting is very important to allow those involved in the Championships to find their way around the competition venue easily.

Signposting must be put in place by the Tuesday at the latest to assist the various groups of people arriving at the Championships.

All signposting bears the logo of the Championships. This reinforces the visual identity of the event.

Signs are written in the language of the host country and English.

Clear and accurate signposting is used at regular intervals, both outside the venue of the Championships (from the host town) as well as inside the site.

4.3 DISPLAY PANELS

In addition to standard signs warning participants about dangers along the course or indicating the direction to follow, specific panels must also be installed on both sides of the road as follows:

- Panels must be placed to indicate the last 50km, 25km, 10km, 5km, 1km, and 500m before the finish line.
- The presence of the next feed zone must be indicated 500m ahead of each zone
- All the technical characteristics of the climbs must be indicated at the bottom of all climbs; this includes: the average and maximum gradients and the length of the climb.

4.4 STARTING PROCEDURE

Elite start

The Elite start will be organised based on a points system that is a cumulation of the following points.

- Points won during the UEC Gravel European Championship of the previous year in the elite category top 25: 1000-750-600-500-450-400-350-300-275-250-225-200-180-160-140-120-100-80-70-60-50-40-30-20-10 points
- 50% of the points in the UCI rankings road, mountain bike cross country (XCO), mountain bike marathon (XCM) and cyclocross

Masters start

Riders will be positioned on a first come, first serve base.

The start boxes must be separated by tape or fences which may be removed a few minutes before the respective starts. After removal of the tape/fence, the next start group can move to the front to be aligned at the start line.

The start time for all riders in a same start group is the gun-time of that specific group, and not the moment each rider crosses the start mat.

The signs to indicate the start boxes for each category must be installed the day prior to the race to allow riders to understand where they need to be the following day.

Different age groups start at different start times in the race. If age groups merge, they can ride together. The only exception in which a commissaire will interfere is when a rider specifically waits to help another rider in a later start group.

4.5 TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

The following UCI Regulations will be applicable:

15.6.006 Feeding and technical assistance shall only be available in designated zones (Feed and technical assistance zones).

Mechanical assistance is not provided. Riders are advised to bring their own spare tire or tubular to the race.

It's possible to change wheels in the feed zones/pit.

It's allowed to have mechanical help during the event and change wheels, but a bike change is not allowed. The rider must finish with the same bike frame he used at the start.

4.6 FEED ZONES – TECHNICAL ZONES

Feed and Tech zones location:

All riders should bring their own tools and spare tire or tubular to the race.

Staff working for riders must wear readily identifiable team clothing.

4.7 TIMING

The event is timed for all the participants, for the entire length of the course.

The timekeeping provider will produce an overall ranking per age group and gender with a separate elite title for the elite category.

The timing of the event starts with the gun, and not when each individual rider crosses the starting carpet (GUN time principle).

ARTICLE 5. AWARDS CEREMONIES

In accordance with articles 1.2.112 and 1.2.113 of the UCI Regulations, the 3 best riders of each category must attend the official awards ceremony, any interviews organised and the press conference.
